

Plant Operator

Position Description

The purpose of the Operator role is to produce Oberland's products adhering to the safety and quality procedures which have been developed to be aligned with our business purpose and vision.

The role is supported by the Production Team Lead.

Functional Responsibilities

Revenue 100%:

- Rearing Black Soldier Fly (BSF) larvae using our multi-function process control machinery technology and equipment adhering to our Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs)
- Efficient operation and monitoring of multi-function food processing equipment to ensure the products meet company quality standards
- Bagging, storing and organization of finished food product and inventory
- Receiving, offloading and processing organics deliveries
- Strict adherence to health and safety policies
- Daily cleaning of equipment and production areas to maintain high standards
- Equipment troubleshooting and adjustment as needed
- Use of custom computer software to track and organize production, monitoring that production data including day to day results as well as experiment and process improvement data, shipping records, daily reports and other necessary data in adherence with company procedures
- Check products to ensure conformance to regulatory requirements and alert QA/QC to any nonconformances based on data or product quality issues
- Light preventative maintenance duties

This position is NOC 94140 TEER 4